Itinerary

Gain an overview but impressive understanding of Shanghai with this short four day tour. Though an emerging metropolis, it possesses age-old classical gardens and streets dating back to Ming dynasty. Put yourself right in the middle of the cultural collision of China and the west. Balanced with Shanghai non-stop attitude, nearby Zhujiajiao town presents a typical water country scenery. Take a boat on the waterway or just relax in a tranquil teahouse.

A perfect fit for foreign professionals already within China or travelers with a few extra days in Shanghai.

Day 01 :

Arrive at Shanghai

Upon your arrival at Shanghai, your local guide will meet you at the airport and drive you to the hotel. After checking in choose to have a rest or start to explore with your guides or on your own.

Day 02 :

Shanghai City One Day Tour

Start off this tour with a stop at beautiful Yuyuan or more commonly known as Yu Garden. A lush must-visit spot for travelers from all over the world. A short walk from the gardens will take you to one of Shanghai's Old Streets, that dates back to the late Qing dynasty and the early Republic of China. Ramble along on this old street known as Miaoqian Dajie.

After snacking all morning or lunch, your choice, continue on the Shanghai Museum. One of China's best museum. It's a golden chance for you to learn about ancient China and view the more than 100,000 antiques, painting, and calligraphy. A 20 minutes drive across Shanghai will get you to Xintiandi, where cars are not allowed to enter.

Head toward the Huangpu River that famously divides Shanghai massive city in half. You will already have noticed the ominous Shanghai Tower an international symbol of Shanghai. Standing as the world's second-tallest building at present. Take the world's second-fastest elevators with your guide to the world's highest observation deck on the 118th floor to have a commanding view of the city, like none other.

Day 03 :

Zhujiajiao Half Day Tour

When ready to go your Shanghai guide and driver will head out to the Shanghai suburbs for a one hour drive to visit Zhujiajiao. Famous for its long-standing history and beautiful water country scenery. There are over 35 hand-built stone bridges that are a key part of the Zhujiajiao ambiance.

A pleasant change after experiencing Shanghai's hustle, you will easily be attracted by its tranquility and quietness. This ancient town along with its elaborate bridges is full of small gardens and street mixed between small canals like Venice and Suzhou.

In the afternoon leisurely travel back to Shanghai where there is free structured time. Options can easily include shopping at Nanjing Road, a visit to the Bund, return to the Shanghai Museum or perhaps a Huangpu River Cruise.

Day 04 :

Departure from Shanghai

After breakfast, your guide and driver will see you off to the airport or train station. WindhorseTour is happily to assist you in planning travel to other cities or extending your stay in Shanghai.
