Itinerary

Saga Dawa festival is called 'the festival to free captive animals' in local custom. Through the whole fourth month, monks don't eat meat and don't commit slaughter. They only concentrate themselves on turning prayer wheels and reciting Buddha's scriptures. It is said that on the 1st of the fourth month is the day that Shakyamuni was born, became enlightened and achieved nirvana. And you will see large numbers of pilgrims at Lhasa's Jokhang, on the Barkor circuit and also Mt.Kailash.

Day 01 :

May 15, 2024 Arrival at Lhasa (3,658m)

Upon arrival at Lhasa airport or train station, to be met and transferred to your hotel in Lhasa. Then have a good rest to acclimatize the high altitude. Overnight at Lhasa.

Day 02 :

May 16, 2024 Lhasa City Highlight Tour - Visit Jokhang temple and Potala Palace - Walking Tour

Today, you will explore two of Tibet's most revered sites: Jokhang Temple and Potala Palace. Jokhang Temple, established in the 7th century, is the spiritual heart of Tibet, nestled in Lhasa's historic Barkhor Street. This area is not only a place of deep religious significance but also a vibrant market where you can find a wide array of Tibetan souvenirs and handicrafts.

Potala Palace, an iconic symbol of Tibet, stands majestically as a monumental structure that has dominated the Lhasa skyline for centuries. Once the winter residence of the Dalai Lamas, this architectural marvel features an intricate layout of chapels, galleries, and libraries, housing numerous Buddhist statues, relics, and murals, each steeped in history.

If time allows, follow your Tibetan guide to enjoy a cup of sweet tea in a local tea house before heading back to your hotel.
Overnight in Lhasa.

Day 03 :

May 17, 2024 Lhasa Monasteries Tour

Today you will visit Drepung and Sera monasteries, as well as the Summer Palace, Norbulingka. Both Drepung and Sera monasteries belong to the Gelugpa (Yellow Hat) sect of Tibetan Buddhism. Drepung Monastery, once the seat of government before Potala, was historically the world's largest monastery, housing up to 10,000 monks from various parts of Tibet. Sera Monastery is renowned for its practice of Buddhist philosophical debates, where the monks' clapping and expressive debates are a sight to behold. Norbulingka, the summer palace of the Dalai Lama, allows visitors to explore the residences of different Dalai Lama lineages. Overnight in Lhasa.
